WINSLOW LIKELY TO BE RELEASED TO-DAY.
THE LOUISVILLE FORGER'S CASE—IMPORTANT WORK FOR THE QUEEN'S JUDGES—PARLIAMENTARY VOTE ON THE LIQUOR QUESTION.
LONDON, June 14, 1876.

In relation to the case of Winslow, George Everett, Esq., clerk for the criminal business of the Home Office, in an interview with the London agent of the New York Associated Press, to-day stated that he could communicate no official information, but said, speaking as a private individual, he should think that Winslow would be released to-morrow, as he knows of no supplementary treaty between Great Britain and the United States being agreed to. The judge's decision to-morrow will depend upon whether Sir John Holker, the Attorney General, has been instructed to hold out the hope that an agreement will be reached, but he was not aware whether Sir John Holker had been so instructed.

THE CASE OF CHARLES BRENT, THE LOUISVILLE FORGER.
Mr. Everett also stated that application was made to Justice Lindley on June 9 for a writ of habeas corpus for Charles Brent, the Louisville forger, when Justice Lindley remanded the case to June 15 for the consideration of the full court.

THE CONVICT CAPTAIN OF THE FRANCONIA A CLAUDE OF DELAY TO BRENT.

The case of Ferdinand Kohn (late captain of the steamer Franconia, which ran into and sunk the steamer Strathclyde), and in whose case an appeal was taken at his trial in the Central Criminal Court as to the question of jurisdiction, will be argued before the eighteen Common Law Judges to-morrow and will last through the week, so that the case of Charles Brent cannot come before the Queen's Bench before Monday.

WHAT MAY BE DONE.
Mr. Hoffman, United States Charge d'Affaires, thinks that Brent's application will be heard at the Chambers to-morrow with Winslow's. The official notice to the United States Legation of the remand of Winslow does not mention a full bench, but is referred there to-morrow.

THE LIQUOR QUESTION IN PARLIAMENT.
In the House of Commons this afternoon Sir Wilfrid Lawson's permissive liquor bill was rejected by a vote of 209 to 81.

A similar bill, presented by Mr. Lawson last year, was defeated by 271 to 96.

JEFFERSON DAVIS TO AN ENGLISH MISSIONARY ASSOCIATION.
LONDON, June 15, 1876.

A meeting was held yesterday at the residence of the Earl of Shaftesbury in furtherance of church and university education in the Southern States of the United States.

Among the letters read, apologizing for absence, was one from Jefferson Davis, dated Liverpool, announcing his arrival shortly in London.

TURKEY.

THE HERZEGOVINIAN CHIEFS SAID TO HAVE REJECTED THE ARMISTICE.
RAGUSA, June 14, 1876.

Information received here from Slavonic sources says that the Herzegovinian chiefs have held a meeting and resolved to reject the armistice.

AUSTRIA WILL NOT RELIEVE THE REFUGEES.
Austria will grant no further relief to the Herzegovinian refugees.

THE SULTAN'S SYMPATHY FOR THE SERBIANS.
BUDAPEST, June 14, 1876.

The Grand Vizier of Turkey has written a very conciliatory and friendly reply to Prince Milan's explanation of the Serbian armistice. He expresses sympathy with Serbia's position, and says the Porte is not unkindly disposed toward Serbia's autonomy and privileges.

FRIENDLY CONFERENCE.
He admits that there has been violation of the frontier by both parties, and promises to appoint special delegates to confer with Serbian delegates upon the means of preventing such violations in the future.

THE RULER OF ROMANIA CAUTIOUS CONCERNING NEUTRALITY.
BUCHAREST, June 14, 1876.

The Rumanian government has issued an order reminding foreigners of the penalties for conspiring on its territory against foreign States and for trafficking in arms.

THE KHEVIR OF EGYPT EXPECTED IN CONSTANTINOPLE.
LONDON, June 15, 1876.

A Vienna dispatch to the Standard says the Khedive was expected to arrive in Constantinople yesterday.

PRINCES TO ATTEND THE IMPERIAL INTERVIEW.
The Princes of Roumania and Serbia have sent telegraphic dispatches to the Porte announcing that they will be represented at the investiture of the Sultan to-day.

GERMAN WARINGS OF PEACE IN THE EAST.
The Protestant Correspondent, of Berlin, has a very specific editorial, which concludes as follows:—"Between the last conference at Berlin and the interview of the Czar and Emperor William at Ems lies a momentous epoch of modern history."

THE Czar GREATER THAN HIS CHANCELLOR.
The Standard, commenting on this remark, says it means that if the Czar had not interfered at the last moment Gortschakoff would have plunged Russia into war with Turkey and England.

THE OTHER SON OF ABDEL AZIZ STILL ALIVE.
The Times officially denies the reports of the death of the mother and son of the late Sultan.

GERMANY AND RUSSIA.
CORDIAL FRATERNIZATION OF THE POWERFUL MONARCHS.
Ems, June 14, 1876.

The Czar of Russia met the Emperor William of Germany at the railway station on his arrival here to-day.

The greeting of their Majesties was cordial.

BISMARCK RECAPITULATING.
BERLIN, June 14, 1876.

Prince Bismarck has gone to Kissingen.

CUBA AND GERMANY.

HEAVY FAILURE IN THE ANTILLES PROVISION TRADE.
HAVANA, June 14, 1876.

M. Belandier & Co., importers and dealers in provisions in this city, failed to-day. Their liabilities are estimated at $500,000 in this island.

GERMAN RESIDENTS TO BE PROTECTED FROM UNJUST TAXATION.
BERLIN, June 14, 1876.

The official Gazette states that the Imperial government some time ago opened negotiations with Spain for the purpose of freeing German residents in Cuba from the extraordinary war taxes levied there. Differences arose respecting the interpretation of the treaties on this subject and a series of difficulties, including the general political situation, were put forward as preventing Spain from acceding to Germany's demands.

SPANISH JUSTICE TO THE TEST.
Germany, however, has now succeeded in obtaining the concession that process of distraint and forced sale of property for payment of said taxes shall be suspended in the case of German residents until an understanding is attained.

FRANCE.

M. BUFFET'S SENATORIAL ASPIRATION A CAUSE OF CABINET DIFFICULTY—BISHOP DUPANLOUP ASKS A FORTNIGHT QUESTION.
PARIS, June 14, 1876.

President MacMahon assured Minister Dufaure yesterday that he intended to remain neutral in the matter of M. Buffet's candidacy for the Senate.

AN EXECUTIVE DIFFICULTY.
Le Temps says the Ministry would regard M. Buffet's election as an act of hostility on the part of the Senate and would resign. The affair causes excitement. It is said if the Cabinet should resign and a new one be formed out of the Right, the Chamber of Deputies would refuse to vote the budget.

A QUESTION FOR THE POPE.
Bishop Dupanloup has written a pamphlet entitled "Whether Are We Going?" It endeavors to show that society and religion are in the greatest peril through the triumph of progress and materialism.

The publication is widely circulated and causes a sensation.

AN AMERICAN BALLOON HOAX.
The French papers have been astonishing their readers with a report that a balloon from America had landed at Rennes. The story, which was given with circumstantial details in some journals, was a complete hoax.

BELGIUM.

THE ANTI-CATHOLIC RIOT AGITATION CONTINUED—A CATHOLIC INSTITUTE WRECKED IN ANTWERP—THE CABINET CALLED TO COUNCIL.
BRUSSELS, June 14—Evening.

Great agitation still prevails, but there has been less disturbance to-day than yesterday. Bands of rioters continue to meet and in front of the Catholic institutions.

Some windows have been broken and a few arrests made.

RIOT AND WRECKAGE IN ANTWERP.
At Antwerp the disturbances were renewed to-day. Many thousands marched through the streets shouting "Down with the ministers!" The mob attacked and wrecked a Catholic institution.

POLICE CHARGE.
The gendarmes charged upon the rioters, and several persons were wounded.

A number of arrests have been made.

THE CABINET SUMMONED TO COUNCIL.
A cabinet council has been called for to-morrow.

JACKSON, Miss., June 14, 1876.

A full and very enthusiastic delegation attended the State Democratic Convention here to-day. Representatives to the National Convention were chosen, all of whom are Tilden men, and the delegation was instructed to act at St. Louis as a unit in casting the vote of the State.

THE LOUISIANA INVESTIGATION.
NEW ORLEANS, June 14, 1876.

Messrs. Vance and Woodburn, the Sub-Committee on the Coushatta affair, made their report to General R. L. Gibson, Chairman of the Committee. After detailing the circumstances of the shooting of King and Twichell, the report says:—

We cannot, within the space of this report, recapitulate the worse than profligate conduct of the school affairs and other irregularities and malpractices of Mr. Twichell and his associates, as was shown to have existed in Red River parish since its organization. In a word, the affairs of the parish have been managed, under the direction of Mr. Twichell, in such a way as to bring about the condemnation of good citizens of both political parties, and your Committee have no hesitation in saying they were unprepared and greatly surprised to find such a lamentable condition of things existing. In conclusion the Committee says the testimony of leading men of the two political parties is explicit in establishing the fact that the shooting of King and Twichell was not caused by reason of their political opinions and that the affair was not of a political character.
